

Laurent TIMSIT

Directeur Affaires internationales, Air France

Born in 1967, holder of an ENAC Engineer Degree and a MBA of the French Collège des Ingénieurs, Laurent started working for the General Directorate for Civil Aviation where he was in charge of promoting and supporting the export of French Civil Aviation manufactured products.

As from 1997, he was in charge of the negotiation and implementation of Bilateral Air Services Agreements signed between France and third countries to the European Union.

He joined Air France back in 2002 as responsible for European Affairs and followed during ten years the evolution of the European regulatory framework as well as the different Competition Law procedures in which Air France KLM was involved.

He then joined the Air France KLM Group in 2016 to be responsible of Strategy and Innovation. Laurent is presently SVP in charge of International and Governmental Affairs of the Air France KLM Group.
